

Kimberly is a twelve-year veteran CTAE teacher. Prior to becoming a member of the aMaysing family at Mays High School, she served as the General Management Pathway teacher, College and Career Center Advisor and After-school At-risk Tutoring Program Coordinator at North Springs High, as well as, CTAE Business and Finance Pathway Specialist and Learning Architect for Fulton County Schools.

She has earned an AAT degree in Computer Information Systems, a bachelor's degree in Business Administration, and a master's degree in Education. Kimberly will finish her Tier 1 Ed.S. certification at Georgia State this summer. She is a certified Global Career Development Facilitator who has taught CTAE courses at the middle and high school levels in Georgia and South Carolina. She has also earned her coaching endorsement and multiple certifications in Entrepreneurship and Small Business.

Kimberly is an alumni member of Leadership Georgia, "one of the nation's oldest and most successful leadership training programs for young business, civic, and community leaders." In her spare time, she enjoys partnering with various community organizations, reading, and writing. Kimberly has authored three self-help empowerment books: God Was Waiting on Me, How to Survive High School, and Start Right...Stay Right. She has been working to prepare students for life after high school since 2008 and her work inside and outside of the classroom centers around equipping students and educators with the necessary tools to excel in every area of their lives.

Professional Memberships

NCDA – National Career Development Association

ACTE – Association for Career and Technical Education

GA ACTE – Georgia Association for Career and Technical Education

GA Business Education Division

ACTE – Business Education Division

How to Connect

LinkedIn - <https://www.linkedin.com/in/kimberly-wilson-daniel-m-ed-gcdf-ab374a4/>

Twitter - <https://twitter.com/kimwilsondaniel>